

Literacy Week 6 Monday

Learning Intention: To create new characters.

Last week we learnt all about the story Gigantosaurus. This week we are going to be creating our own dinosaur themed story by changing different aspects of the story each day.

If you need to remember the story you can listen to it here:

In your blue exercise books (or on a plain sheet of paper stuck in) write Week 6 Literacy and today's date.

To you are going to create new characters for your story.

You need to think of a new main character and their friends and one big scary character. It could be a scary real dinosaur like a tyrannosaurus rex or one you completely make up. Draw all your new characters and label them with their names and some descriptive words, such as pointing their teeth and labelling them "sharp white teeth". Remember to use your phonics and finger spaces!
