

Literacy Week 2 Monday

Learning Intention: To create a story map.

Your challenge over this week is to become really familiar with the story 'Pirates Love Underpants' so that on Friday you will be able to write the story from memory in your own words.

Listen to the story here:

In your blue exercise books (or on a plain sheet of paper stuck in) write Week 3 Literacy and today's date.

For today I want you to draw and label your own story map about the story 'Pirates Love Underpants'. You can look at the 'Aliens Love Underpants' one for ideas of how this could look. Remember to draw your pictures small so they fit on the page and make you have the key characters, the main events, the mode of transport and the setting (the island) clearly on the story map.
